Tips and Tricks for Improving Your Nature Photography

Want to improve on your nature photography skills? Buffalo Audubon Society is hosting this nature photography workshop on August 10th from 10:00 am to 12 noon at the Beaver Meadow Audubon Center in North Java. The class will be conducted by Deanne Cunningham, owner of Wings and Things Nature Photography. Her articles and photographs have appeared in WildBird magazine, Shutterbug's Outdoor and Nature Photography, Birds and Blooms, Discover, and nature photography newsletters First Light and F/8 and Being There. Class will cover close-ups, landscapes, animals, and birds. There is a $10 fee for the class. For more information and to register, call Beaver Meadow Audubon Center at 585-457-3228 or email info@buffaloudubon.org

EPA Announces Public Meeting to Discuss Eighteen Mile Creek Cleanup and Resident Relocation

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency has proposed a plan to clean up nine properties, relocate residents from five of the properties, and demolish an industrial building at the former Flintkote Plant site as part of the first phase of cleanup at the Eighteen Mile Creek Superfund site in Lockport, New York. The residential properties located on Water Street are contaminated with polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) and other contaminants, including lead and chromium. The EPA will hold a public meeting on August 13, 2013 to explain the proposed plan and take public comments. The meeting will be held at 7:00 pm at the 4-H Training Center at the Niagara County Fairgrounds, 4487 Lake Avenue, Lockport, New York. Comments will be accepted until August 26, 2013. The proposed plan and more information about the site is available online at <http://www.epa.gov/region02/superfund/npl/18milecreek/>. Comments may be emailed to taccone.tom@epa.gov.

Increase your shutter speed and prepare for a once in a lifetime opportunity to capture animals in action, in their natural settings! Professional, amateur, and recreational photographers are invited to bring their cameras and venture into the wild during Hawk Creek Wildlife Center's last event of the summer, Wild Photo Day on Saturday, August 17, 2013 from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm. Join Hawk Creek's wildlife experts as they provide an opportunity to photograph many of their popular, rare, and endangered animals up-close, in natural settings, and without barriers. Trying to get a shot of the Turkey Vulture in flight? Looking for that perfect bald eagle shot? Having trouble with your lighting when shooting at night? On Wild Photo Day the eagles, owls, falcons, wild cats, and more await you! Pre-registration is required as space is limited. Tickets can be purchased online, simply bring your e-mailed receipt and photo ID the day of the event. Reservations can also be purchased over the phone via credit card. Please visit www.hawkcreek.org or call 716-652-8646 for information and directions. Parking is free. No pets please. Event is rain or shine. Hawk Creek Wildlife Center is located at 655 Luther Rd. East Aurora, NY 14052.

Medicinal Herbs and Concoctions Program

The Roycroft Campus Corporation is hosting a hands-on workshop Medicinal Herbs and Concoctions on Saturday, August 17, 2013 from 1:00 to 3:00pm in the Campus Power House in East Aurora. Concepts of self-sufficiency and immersion in Nature were among the major principles that guided the Roycroft community and the Arts and Crafts Movement of the early 20th century. Medicinal Herbs and Concoctions revives these ideals with discussions on plants common to Western New York (both native and alien) and their traditional uses by the Haudenosaunee (Iroquois peoples), European settlers and modern medicine. Additionally, participants will perform a bit of kitchen alchemy while preparing some simple formulas using both wild and cultivated plants. Registration for this workshop is limited to 15 people and may be completed online at the Roycroft Campus Corporation's website or by phone at 716-655-0261. Medicinal Herbs and Concoctions will be led by Mary Jo Graham, naturalist and founder of Oakmoss Education, an environmental education organization conducting programs with area schools and the general public covering a wide variety of topics from ecology to homesteading skills. Ms. Graham is also a volunteer docent for the Roycroft Campus Corporation.

Land Conservancy to Host Geology Hike through Gorge at Kenneglenn Nature Preserve

The Western New York Land Conservancy is hosting a geology hike through the Hunter's Creek gorge at Kenneglenn Nature Preserve in the Town of Wales on Saturday, August 24, from 10 am to noon. The hike will be led by Stan Radon, a geologist with the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation. While walking through Hunter's Creek, we will examine the hundreds of colorful layers of rock in the gorge walls, and discuss the geology and natural history that made this astounding natural feature. We will also visit a beautiful waterfall. The hike is free and open to the public, but attendees must register in advance by calling the Land Conservancy at (716) 687-1225, or by emailing info@wnylc.org. Space is limited, so please confirm soon. The hike is appropriate for people of all ages. Please be prepared to walk in the creek with shoes that have great traction. Parking is available at the Kenneglenn Nature Preserve in front of the Land Conservancy office. We will share a map and directions with everyone that registers for the event.

Paddle & Dine at Beaver Meadow Audubon Center

With the return of the beavers and the increase in the water level of our pond, Buffalo Audubon Society is pleased to revive Paddle & Dine. Imagine placing a canoe in the water and pushing off onto the pond at Beaver Meadow Audubon Center (map) . Imagine turtles, Great Blue Herons and Beavers sharing the water with you as you silently glide over the still surface and enjoy hors d'oeuvres at the water's edge. Imagine enjoying a delicious candlelight dinner in the Center followed by dessert on the terrace and lawn. This unique event will be held on Saturday August 24th from 6:00pm on. The cost is $75 per person, including wine and beer. All proceeds benefit Beaver Meadow and the Buffalo Audubon Society. Space is limited, so call the Center at (585) 457-3228 to reserve your spot. Reservations must be made by August 17.

Olmsted Rocks the Party for the Parks

On Friday, September 6th, Party for the Parks returns to the Marcy Casino in Delaware Park! This year's theme is "Olmsted Rocks!" and will draw on the rich and storied history of rock and roll. Party for the Parks is the annual summer-ending, over-21 party that benefits the Buffalo Olmsted Parks Conservancy. This year's Party for the Parks will feature an amazing array of rock music, performances from fire dancers, fantastic auction, and much more! Pre-sale tickets are on sale now through our website for $20 each.

Penn Dixie Nature Cruise & Lighthouse Tour

The 21st Penn Dixie Nature Cruise and Lighthouse Tour will be held on Saturday, September 14, 2013. Boarding for the cruise will begin at 8:30 AM at the entrance to the Erie Basin Marina, departure is promptly at 9 AM, and return to the dock at 12 Noon. After the cruise, participants will be provided maps for directions to the U.S. Coast Guard Station for a tour of the Buffalo Lighthouse, courtesy of the Buffalo Lighthouse Association. The cruise will provide views from the harbor, Lake Erie, the Niagara River, the locks, and the Black Rock Canal as we travel along the Buffalo waterfront. The cost of the cruise and lighthouse tour for Penn Dixie members - $25 adults, $22 children and non-member adults - $28, children $25. To request information, call (716) 627-4560 or visit www.penndixie.org.

Tour de Farms: Riders Wanted

GObike Buffalo and the Massachusetts Ave. Project are thrilled to host the 5th annual Tour de Farms sponsored by Independent Health and the Buffalo News. Tour de Farms is a bicycle tour of local, urban, and rural farms, designed to celebrate and highlight sustainable transportation and our connection to the local food system. This year's ride is approximately 35 miles and bicyclists will travel from Buffalo's West Side visiting urban farm and community gardens, stopping at Bipperts Farm and ending at the Oles Family Farm in Alden, NY. Afterward is a Local Food Celebration for riders, their families and friends and anyone else in the Western New York community to join. This year's event is Saturday, September 14. For more info, visit <http://tourdefarmsbuffalo.org/>

Light Rail Conference in Buffalo

A Light Rail Conference will be held on September 14, 2013 at Montante Cultural Center, Canisius College. The theme is how could light rail expansion be a catalyst for WNY economic growth? This event is in the planning stages, to include speakers, videos, forums and brainstorming around potential routes for light rail expansion. Have ideas to add to the mix as we plan? Please contact CRT at crtc@citizenstransit.org.

Be Green Organic Yards NY

Want a beautiful yard using organic practices without conventional pesticides and synthetic fertilizers, but need help to create and maintain it? Businesses that participate in DEC's Be Green Organic Yards NY program can take care of your lawn, plants, and trees organically. When you hire a Be Green business, only products and materials that meet DEC's conditions for organic management should be used in your yard. Be Green businesses sign an agreement with DEC for the right to use the Be Green service mark (logo). In return, businesses agree that, when they provide Be Green services, they will avoid the synthetic pesticides and other materials prohibited by the organic conditions as they are defined in the agreement. Homeowners and commercial customers looking for organic yard care can visit our web site for a list of Be Green Businesses. Questions about the program? Email us at BeGreen@gw.dec.state.ny.us.

EPA Software Helps Reduce Water Pollution as Part of President's Climate Action Plan

As part of President Obama's Climate Action Plan, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) released the National Stormwater Calculator, an innovative addition to the administration's virtual climate resilience toolkit. EPA's new calculator will help property owners, developers, landscapers, and urban planners make informed land-use decisions to protect local waterways from pollution caused by stormwater runoff. Preventing stormwater runoff, which can impact drinking water resources and local ecosystems, protects people's health and the environment.

The calculator, phase I of the Stormwater Calculator and Climate Assessment Tool package, is a desktop application that estimates the annual amount of stormwater runoff from a specific site, based on local soil conditions, slope, land cover, and historical rainfall records. Users can enter any U.S. location and select different scenarios to learn how specific green infrastructure changes, including inexpensive changes like rain barrels and rain gardens, can prevent pollution. This information helps users determine how adding green infrastructure can be one of the most cost-effective ways to reduce stormwater runoff. More information about the National Stormwater Calculator: <http://www.epa.gov/nrmrl/wswrd/wq/models/swc/>

Beware of Hogweed

Giant hogweed, an invasive plant that can cause painful burns, will be flowering in a few weeks. Please use the NYSDEC Giant Hogweed Hotline for all inquiries: ghogweed@gw.dec.state.ny.us or 845-256-3111. The hotline is a place for people to report new sites, get help identifying suspect giant hogweed plants, ask questions about the plant and how to control it, and connect with the statewide control project. For help in identifying the plant, visit <http://www.dec.ny.gov/animals/39809.html>.

New York's Watchable Wildlife

DEC's wildlife experts help you learn where to find wildlife, what sounds to listen for, or when to look for your favorite animal. Find a full list of wildlife viewing sites in New York State with many new locations just released and see our full list of wildlife species.

Locavore Challenge

In recognition of National Organic Harvest Month, Northeast Organic Farming Association of New York is once again launching their month-long Locavore Challenge in September to inspire awareness and action in eating locally and organically through events and activities held around the state and online. Think you've got what it takes to be a true Locavore? Register now and join hundreds of people who are participating in the Challenge. All month we will bring you tips, encouragement, event updates, and even introduce you to some great farmers. Join the community- it's free! ## 2012 State of the Environment Report for Erie County

The Erie County Environmental Management Council has released its 2012 State of the Environment Report. The report provides recommendations for prioritizing action to improve our local and regional environment. For the full report, visit here.

Climate Change Data

LMI-CliCKE is an online database to explore, analyze, evaluate, and compare nearly 3,000 scientific findings related to climate change drawn from the Fourth Assessment Report (AR4) of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC). These findings span 44 chapters and thousands of pages so locating important findings that relate to your particular concerns is a daunting task. Users can search and filter climate change findings based on various criteria including: topic, source, geographic region, time period, and level of uncertainty. CliCKE allows you to focus on what is known and not known about climate change for the problem of interest to you. To access, visit <http://clিকে.lmi.org>.

Free Climate Assessment Videos Archived

The National Climate Assessment videos, part of a series organized and co-produced by Second Nature, are available for viewing. SSF members can access the recording and download the slides from this webinar and the others in the archive. If you are not an SSF member, registration is free and gives you free access our entire video archive. The Sustained Assessment is a recommendation in the draft National Climate Assessment released by the US Global Change Research Program. Review the report at <http://ncadac.globalchange.gov/>.

GM Crops- Promise and Reality

The research science journal Nature devoted its May 2, 2013 issue to articles related to genetically modified crops. As our foods more frequently contain genetically modified crops, it is important that we separate truth from fiction on this controversial topic. As informed consumers, we can be better prepared to advocate for appropriate labeling and make decisions regarding our own diets. View at www.nature.com/news/specials/gmcrops/index.html.

Sustainability in the Cleaning Industry

The cleaning industry has posted their 2011 Sustainability Report. The report highlights what specific companies are doing to address sustainability issues, but also includes limited data on corporate footprints. Access it here.

Congress for the New Urbanism

Congress for The New Urbanism is coming to Buffalo June 1-4, 2014. CNU promotes walkable, mixed-use neighborhood development, sustainable communities and healthier living conditions. The annual Congress for the New Urbanism (CNU) is the leading venue for new urbanist networking, collaboration, and education. CNU members come from far and wide to discuss development practices and public policies, learn from recent innovative work, and advance new initiatives to transform our communities. For info, here.

Snake Fungal Disease Spreading

Researchers have been finding increasing numbers of snakes with lesions, particularly around their faces. Similar to the white-nose syndrome reported in bats, the cause of the lesions appears to be a fungal disease. The condition has been found in snakes around the eastern and midwestern United States. Conservationists fear it could pose a similar threat to snakes as white-nose syndrome in bats. Snake fungal disease has been documented sporadically in the past, but it began showing up with increasing frequency beginning in 2006. The disease has been found in a number of species of snake including northern water snakes, timber rattlesnakes and milk snakes. For more info, visit http://www.nwhc.usgs.gov/disease\_information/other\_diseases/snake\_fungal\_disease.jsp.

Solar Potential Mapping Tool

Researchers at MIT have developed a new 3D solar potential mapping tool. The first rooftop solar mapping module of the Mapdwell platform, Solar System is available to anyone with webaccess. Incorporating factors ranging from roof angles and surface temperatures to local weather data and physical obstructions, access it here.

River Academy Registration Open for Fall

The River Academy program features local experts sharing their passion for Niagara River hydrology, geology, ecology, contamination issues, land use impacts, restoration project design, mapping, stream assessment and more. Sessions will include field trips and hands-on workshops. Participants will receive a certificate upon graduation. River Academy provides an exciting opportunity for professionals seeking to deepen their understanding of Niagara watershed issues, students in need of hands-on field experience, teachers seeking professional development, and all other fans of our amazing waterways! Riverkeeper has partnered with Erie County Community (ECC) College to provide this program, so course credits are available to participating students. ECC course credits are fully transferable to most SUNY schools. River Academy classes will be held on Saturday mornings at the Riverkeeper office and field locations. Tuition is $250 for the full semester or $50 per class. To register for course credit visit www.ecc.edu and register for PH 122/123, River Academy. If you do not need course credit fill out this form: River Academy Registration. You will receive a certificate of completion and be recognized at our end of semester picnic! For questions or more information about River Academy, contact Robbyn Drake at 852-7483 x12 or rdrake@bnriverkeeper.org.

Buffalo Zoo Headstarting Hellbenders

The Buffalo Zoo has been working with the NYS Department of Environmental Conservation to rear hellbenders and give them a head start prior to a release into the wild. The Eastern hellbender is the largest salamander in our country and can be found in some of our native streams. The zoo received eggs and been rearing the salamanders since they hatched in November of 2009. The NYS Department of Transportation is also working to help restore habitat for the salamanders by placing rock in appropriate streams.

Great Lakes Ecosystem Threatened by Microbeads

SUNY Fredonia Professor Sherri Mason has teamed up with the 5 Gyres Institute to sample the Great Lakes for small pieces of plastics, microbeads, that threaten wildlife. Early results suggest that these small particles are more numerous in samples from the Great Lakes than in comparable areas sampled in oceanic waters. The size and shape of the microbeads suggest that they may originate in personal care products like facial and body washes. For more info, read here.

Fall Case Study Teaching in Science Conference

The annual Fall Case Study Teaching in Science Conference will be held September 20-21, 2013, in Buffalo, NY, sponsored by the National Center for Case Study Teaching in Science. Our conference offers sessions for both the beginner and advanced case study teacher along with a one-day track for high school teachers. For info, visit here. The conference is open to anyone interested in science education, including high school teachers and international teachers. It also includes a poster session and proposals are accepted until September 5, 2013.

Fall Bird Banding Course

Braddock Bay Bird Observatory is pleased to offer a Banders' Training Course from September 22 to September 28, 2013. The course is open to anyone interested in learning or perfecting banding skills from professional staff. Training will take place at the Kaiser-Manitou Beach Banding Station, located just northwest of Rochester, NY on the shore of Lake Ontario at the height of the fall migration. Mornings will feature hands-on training in the field while afternoons will be devoted to lectures, demonstrations and in-depth instruction on various aspects of bird banding. Although the course is scheduled to run from 22-28 September, we can be somewhat flexible to arrange other times for the hands-on training and experience. The cost of the course is $450.00 ($425.00 plus a $25.00 registration fee), which includes the cost of housing and materials. Meals and transportation in the area are the students' responsibility. If you can provide your own housing, the cost of the course will be reduced by $125.00; there is a $50 discount for students enrolled in an institution of higher learning. To sign-up, download the Fall 2013 Bander Training Course Application. For additional information email.

Teacher's Resources

Energy 101 Primer The Watt- Ebook published by Focus the Nation. Available on multiple platforms, it provides a comprehensive overview of energy in the United States. It offers a clear and visually engaging overview of energy, covering some basic units and equations; the supply, demand and cost of energy; the history of fossil fuels; and renewables and other innovations.

Spark 101 features interactive videos made by industry professionals on science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) topics. Teachers can use these brief (about 10 minutes long) videos to engage students in solving real-world problems during one or two class periods.

Plug in Hybrids is designed for Grades 4-12. Show your students how plug-in electric hybrid technology works and challenge them to compare and contrast conventional vehicles with their eco-friendly counterparts.

Green Technology: Sustaining the Earth is designed for Grades 6-12 . Use this interactive activity to offer your students an overview of innovation in green technology and insight into various areas of research within the field.

Architecture 2030 is appropriate for Grades 9-12. Learn about this architect's efforts to protect the environment by changing the way buildings are planned, designed, and constructed.

Affordable Green Housing is designed for Grades 9-12 to consider the role habitat plays in fostering diverse, vibrant social structures in well-designed, integrated communities.

Bee Smart<sup>TM</sup> School Garden Kit-Apply now to receive a free Pollinator Partnership school garden kit, designed for grades 3-6, to guide students through a discovery process that will increase students' understanding in science, math, and language arts by connecting them to plants, pollinators, food, and gardens.

Bird Sleuth for K-12. Kits and resources for learning more about birds.

The Story in the Ice: Glaciers and Climate Change are available for you to download and use in your classroom. This 2-day set of lessons pairs James Balog's dramatic images of glacial retreat with real-world scientific data to tell the story of climate change and its impact on our global community. As with all our lesson plans, they are correlated to national learning standards and seek to engage students in interdisciplinary learning experiences.

2012 Choices for Sustainable Living from the Northwest Earth Institute provides updates to the previous edition on ecological principles, food, community, consumption, the economy, and includes a new section on transportation.

Great Lakes in My World curriculum is a Great Lakes teaching tool for grades 9-12.

Team Wild Online Game-ARKive recently launched the Team WILD game as a fun and unique way for students to discover the importance of a career in conservation and science—by turning scientists into superheroes! From jungle to savanna, rainforest to coral reef, students will discover a diverse range of field tasks a conservation scientist or ecologist must do in order to protect the world's species and habitats. Team WILD is also supported by curriculum-linked teaching resources, topic pages linked to the game content and discussion points, encouraging students and teachers to continue their learning journeys by exploring the topics touched upon in the game.

Think Garden Video Series-This video collection was produced by Kentucky Educational Television (KET) for elementary students as a teaching tool about growing food and all elements around food gardening.

Deadlines are October 1 and May 1.

American Alliance of Museums: Museums Connect is designed to strengthen connections and cultural understanding between people in the United States and abroad through collaborative and innovative projects facilitated by museums. The program empowers museums to connect people in the U.S. with people abroad while at the same time strengthening ties between the museums and their communities. Projects addressing the following themes will receive additional consideration: Adapting to Changing Demographics, Investing in Green Practices, Promoting Disability Rights and Engagement, Developing Amateur Experts, and Addressing Community Challenges. Grants ranging from $50,000 to $100,000 are available. All U.S. and non-U.S. museums should submit a museum profile form by October 7, 2013. Deadline for submitting statements of intent to propose is February 18.

New York State Association for Reduction, Reuse and Recycling \(NYSAR3\) has created a grant program that will enable the institutional members of the organization's College Council to apply for grants of up to $1,000 to support innovative projects aimed at "initiating, improving, or expanding source reduction, reuse, or recycling programs on campus." Proposals should be for projects that generate interest and awareness and encourage student, faculty, and staff participation. Projects should also be transferable and adaptable by other colleges and should include an education component. Grant recipients must also agree to provide quantifiable documentation on the impact the grant had on the targeted program. Deadline for submitting applications will be Oct. 9, 2013.

WNY Landscape and Nursery Association Scholarships-Applications accepted for fall and spring college semester. Toby Martino Memorial Scholarship (for high school seniors only) is given to a student who has a passion for horticulture and leadership skills just as Mr. Martino had. Mr. Martino taught horticulture at McKinley High School from 1935-1971 and wrote a weekly column in the Buffalo News. The scholarship is available to a high school senior who will be furthering their education in horticulture or a related field. The George O. Adams and Kenneth E. Isaac Scholarship is named after garden industry leaders through the 1950's and 1960's. Together George and Kenneth started Buffalo Garden Supply in 1953 and operated very successfully until they sold it and retired in 1965. Kenneth Isaac was the first Man of the Year recipient of the Western New York State Nursery & Landscape Association.. George O. Interns for Clean Air Coalition of Western New York-Unpaid positions to help with our organizing, community-based research, and leadership development. All internships include some operations and development work. The Clean Air Coalition's internships are ideal for highly motivated individuals looking to deepen and practice their skills engaging community leaders in solving environmental health and justice organizations.

Seasonal Naturalist- Jamestown Audubon Society position, will teach classroom nature programs, assist with assembling pre- and post-visit materials for classroom visits, maintain database records for classroom programs, and assist with care of the educational live animals. Other tasks may include weekend event planning, leading birthday parties and scout groups, website design and upkeep, brochure and poster design, and exhibit planning and design as skills and time allow. Deadline: Sept. 1 for Oct. 1 start date.

Citizen Science

Hummingbird Citizen Science Project-As flowers bloom earlier because of warming temperatures, the impact on hummingbirds which rely on nectar could be severe. The National Audubon Society has launched a new citizen science project to document hummingbird sightings across the country, using a free mobile app that identifies bird species as well as the plants that feed them. Find out more at www.audubon.org/citizenscience.

Project Squirrel- No matter where you live, city or suburb, from the Midwest to the East Coast, Canada to California, whether squirrels live in your neighborhood or not, you are encouraged to become a squirrel monitor. Take a look around your home, office, school, or anywhere you are and, whether you see squirrels or not, enter your observations at the website. We want to know where squirrels are as well as where they aren't.

Dragonfly Swarm Project-Dragonfly swarms are a rarely observed natural phenomenon and are difficult for any one person to research. This project depends on reports made by people like you who have observed swarms to answer questions about why these swarms form, the conditions under which they form, and to help explain the benefit of these swarms to the environment. With your help, scientists now know more about this fascinating behavior than ever before and are starting to understand how a group of dragonflies benefits us all.

Woodpecker Damage Surveys-Calling all birders: Report woodpecker damage due to Emerald Ash Questions? Contact: imapinvasives@nynhp.org who will provide training to post to the NYS Invasive Species Database. Take photos of the damage, bark, and crown of any ash trees with woodpecker damage.

Pool Owners for Asian Longhorned Beetle Study-Do you own a pool? Participate in the ALB Swimming Pool Survey during August 2013. Asian longhorned beetles (ALB) are an invasive species that has led to the destruction of hundreds of thousands of trees, especially maples. The NYS Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC) Forest Health Program is developing a survey for homeowners who have swimming pools and are willing to monitor them for these insects. Pool monitoring offers a simple alternative to traditional procedures for tracking invasives and at a fraction of the cost. It has the potential to become New York State's most effective method for detecting ALB. In addition, concerned residents like you will enjoy more time outdoors, learn about invasive pests and help protect the state's trees.

Crepuscular Hike at Ghost Pond- 5pm – 8pm at Beaver Meadow Audubon Center, North Java (map). Leaders: Matt Candeias and Rich Kingston The Ghost Pond preserve is the newest addition to the holdings of the Buffalo Audubon Society. Located a mile down the road from Beaver Meadow, the Ghost Pond and the seeps that feed it are the water source for Beaver Meadow's central wetlands and downstream communities. The pond hosts large numbers of pond weeds, water shield, bladderworts, and other emergent and floating vegetation. The broad diversity of wetland and forest types that surround it provide habitat for waterfowl, wading birds, reptiles, and amphibians. In 2011 a beaver lodge was constructed on the property. Several lodges appeared during the year and they have rebuilt several dams on adjacent properties, raising the water level in our namesake beaver pond. Call 585-457-3228 to register.

Tips for the Environment:

- 1. Share or recycle your hardcover books- Need to clear some shelf space or moving offices? If you don't have any titles that titillate your friends, you can drop your books off locally to be recycled or use a paid mail-in program. Betterworldbooks has drop-off boxes at Boulevard Place (1730 Niagara Falls Blvd, Tonawanda), Wegmans at 1575 Military Rd in Niagara Falls and Hamburg Village (140 Pine St., Hamburg). You may have titles that can earn you some $- check out www.betterworldbooks.com which provides prepaid mailing labels and will pay for some books.
- 2. Reuse and recycle your Tips for the Environment-we are probably all using CFL bulbs, recycling regularly and engaging in lots of earth-friendly behaviors. So let's reuse and recycle-you can check the list of tips from the first Enviro-News in January 2006 (check for any missed at econews). If you have tips to share, please send them to me to include.
