

Daemen College Dietetic Internship
 Sample Rotation Schedule
 (Sequence of Clinical, FSM or Community rotations may vary)

WEEK	ROTATION	HOURS	Topic area
1	Orientation	20
2	Clinical Field Work	40	Nutrition assessment
3-5	Clinical Field Work	120	General medicine: DM, CVD, obesity, GI disorders
6-11	Clinical Field Work	240	Complex disease states requiring significant nutritional intervention: renal, hepatic, pulmonary, oncology, multisystem organ failure. This rotation includes 80 hours of staff relief based on the needs of the facility.
12-14	Clinical Field Work Output	120	Various disease states in general medicine or as post-acute care discharge. Students will build on skills developed in inpatient setting.
15-17	Clinical Concentration	120	Requires completion of Clinical Fieldwork 1, 2 and Outpatient rotations. Includes nutrition support and complex medical conditions seen in ICU, NICU, Pediatric ICU, and Surgical Step-down
18-20	FSM Field Work 1	120	All aspects of producing and delivering food and nutrition, within an inpatient setting, to patients who have medical needs related to diet and menu modification
21-25	FSM Field Work 2	200	All aspects of marketing, procurement, storage, preparation, delivery, service and management of retail and institutional operations.
26-32	Community Field Work 1	240	Community nutrition assessment, counseling, education, wellness promotion, and project related time management.
1-32	Concurrent enrollment of Professionalization Seminar	30 didactic instruction	